

LANCEBOX GROUP

Former Grampian Chicken Factory Uckfield, East Sussex

Project Time: 20weeks Price £801,325

Lancebox Group were contracted to carry out the complete demolition, asbestos removal and overall site clearance at this former chicken factory. This project on an 8 - 10 acre site was undertaken for Ward Homes while acting as principal Contractor.

The Lancebox Group are proud to have carried out the following works on site;

- ✦ The removal of all low risk asbestos containing materials under semi controlled conditions as set out in CAR 2006 regulations by Lancebox Environmental Services.
- ✦ The removal of all high risk asbestos containing materials under fully controlled conditions conforming to HSG 247 regulations and CAR 2006 regulations by Lancebox Environmental Services.
- ✦ The structural demolition of all factory units and processing plant throughout the whole site by Lancebox Limited.
- ✦ The removal of all slabs and foundations on site by Lancebox Limited.
- ✦ Breaking up and mucking away of all permanent and temporary roadways throughout the site by Lancebox Limited.
- ✦ Lancebox Group carried out the production a Health and Safety construction phase plan as well as environmental plans and traffic management plans for this project.
- ✦ A total of 8 heavy demolition machines were required for this project complete with two crushers and a screening unit.

Client: Ward Homes
Site Manager: Steve Mortlock, Ward Homes

Project QS: Joseph Quashie, Ward Homes
Site Foreman: Danny Samworth, Lancebox Group

